

ANNA JONES.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 452.]

MAY 26, 1842.

Mr. FURNACE, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Anna Jones, report :

That all the facts of the case are contained in the annexed letter from the Commissioner of Pensions; and, being within the rule adopted by the committee, they report a bill.

PENSION OFFICE, March 21, 1842.

SIR: In answer to yours of the 19th instant, I have the honor to state that Nehemiah Jones, deceased, was allowed, first, under the act of March 18, 1818, and, afterwards, under the act of June 7, 1832, a pension for sixteen months and sixteen days' service as a private, and that his widow, Mrs. Anna Jones, presented a claim, under the act of July 7, 1838, which was disallowed, because she was not a widow at the date of its passage. She was married to the late pensioner in 1785, and has been his widow since December 19, 1838.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your most obedient servant,
J. L. EDWARDS.

Hon. J. FURNACE, House of Reps.

ANNA JONES

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 422.]

MAY 26, 1842.

Mr. FORNANCE, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Anna Jones, report:

That all the facts of the case are contained in the annexed letter from the Commissioner of Pensions; and, being within the rule adopted by the committee, they report a bill.

Pension Office, March 21, 1842.

Sir: In answer to yours of the 13th instant, I have the honor to state that Nehemiah Jones, deceased, was allowed, first, under the act of March 18, 1818, and afterwards, under the act of June 7, 1832, a pension for sixteen months and sixteen days' service as a private, and that his widow, Mrs. Anna Jones, presented a claim, under the act of July 7, 1838, which was disallowed, because she was not a widow at the date of its passage. She was married to the late pensioner in 1785, and has been his widow since December 19, 1838.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your most obedient servant,
J. L. EDWARDS,

Hon. J. FORNANCE, House of Reps.